Do You Have A Current Will?

Do you have a current will?

Do you have both a medical and financial power of attorney to accompany the will?

If you answer no to either of these questions, you are at risk that when you die or become incapacitated, your final wishes for your property and your family may be determined by someone else.

At this clinic, we will prepare the needed documents for free and they will be finalized and provided to you before you leave the clinic.
